6 BIG TELLY Our Resident Theatre Company

Formed in 1987, Big Telly is the longest established professional theatre company in Northern Ireland and we are delighted that their 'home' is now at Flowerfield Arts Centre.

The company celebrated its 30th year in 2017 and has continued to change and develop whilst still retaining its recognisable style and ethos. When we started, we just made plays. Now we work with more people, artists and places than ever before, across many more artforms and in a huge variety of ways. We use the arts to envision new futures through activities such as activating a public space, animating a community or sparking redevelopment and regeneration.

We make invisible theatre projects where dozens of actors are planted in schools simultaneously to confront young people with an issue, multi-site games where teams navigate entire towns undercover, large scale participatory projects like Trade Secrets creating 30 small arts installations each representing the history of a local business, for which we were delighted to win two Arts and Business awards. We're enormously proud of our creative shops project building genuine and surprising creative partnerships between artists and communities in places and ways you'd least expect. And we still make plays. Plays that tour the UK, Ireland and internationally - from Portstewart to Paisley, from Ballycastle to Belgrade, Cushendall to Cardiff, Dunluce to Denmark, Limavady to Leicester and from Torr Head to Taiwan.

Projects to look out for...

We are developing a new theatre piece 'Freak Show' which will Premiere at this year's Belfast International Arts Festival with plans to tour Ireland/UK in Spring 2019.

Degree of Danger - an interactive experience (part game-part immersive theatre) at the University of Ulster, Coleraine Campus as part of their 50th anniversary celebrations.

Our Creative Shops Programme is back with shops opening in Ballyclare, Comber and Carrickfergus.

We are working with Queen's University Belfast, Warwick University, Echo Echo Derry and Beyond Belfast on a collaborative project about Time.

We are partnering with Mid and East Antrim Borough Council and Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council to deliver bespoke heritage projects as part of the European Year of Cultural Heritage.
