Community and Crown Platinum Jubilee Exhibition

3 January – 22 April

This special exhibition celebrates the unique reign of Queen Elizabeth II, the longest reigning British monarch. The Community and Crown display features many items of memorabilia taken from Museums Service collections along with special keepsakes on loan from members of the community. It includes items predating the Coronation and collectables produced for the Coronation and previous jubilees through the years. There are also many items relating to Royal visits to the Causeway Coast and Glens area.

"How wonderful to see real art in Limavady. Fantastic!"

Karl Blossfeldt

Art Forms in Nature

A Hayward Gallery Touring exhibition 20 January – 17 February

Karl Blossfeldt: Art Forms in Nature is a Hayward Touring exhibition which presents an original portfolio of 40 photogravures from 1932, entitled 'Wundergarten der Natur', edited by the artist and published in the year of his death. The exhibition presents an opportunity to witness an exemplary set of Blossfeldt's signature close-up images of plants and flora.

Blossfeldt (1865-1932) is regarded as one of the defining photographers of the twentieth century for his exceptional contribution to the art through his intricate botanical photographs. During his career, which spanned over three decades and included 6,000 photographs, Blossfeldt developed homemade cameras and lenses which enabled him to magnify his subjects by up to 30 times. In doing so he captured the microcosmic aesthetic of his specimens and revealed the underlying structures of nature, which until then remained unexplored.

Blossfeldt originally trained as a sculptor and his amateur interest in botany lead him to explore naturally occurring forms which to his artist eye had a sculptural quality. In 1928, he was convinced to publish portfolios of images which he had previously only used as teaching tools and as aides memoires for his sculptural practice. These portfolios were compiled under the over-arching title Urformen der Kunst (Artforms in Nature). The publication became an overnight sensation, praised by figures including philosophers Walter Benjamin, George Bataille and artist Maholy-Nagy for its commendable photographic technicality and for its objective portrayal of an 'unknown universe'. His photographs also became highly celebrated amongst early modernists and Surrealists during the late 1920s.

CHARLEY THE DOG Throughout the month of January

Describing Steinbeck's road trip through America with his beloved dog, Travels with Charley, is one of the author's most enjoyable books. Throughout January, we will be searching for our very own local 'Charley' the dog to become our festival mascot. Keep an eye for updates on Charley's adventures on our website www.roevalleyarts.com

'The Steinbeck Connection'

Primary Schools Competition Exhibition 11 February – 25 March See Page 18 for further details.

This special exhibition features book cover designs for selected works by Pulitzer prize-winning author John Steinbeck, created by local children.

As part of this year's Steinbeck Festival, we invited local primary school pupils to design a cover for Of Mice and Men, Travels with Charley or Cup of Gold.

Inspiring children to become familiar with Steinbeck's work and encourage literacy, the resulting exhibition is a vibrant, colourful celebration of the renowned author's connection with Limavady. All submitted book covers will be available to view in our Community Gallery.

Steinbeck Dustbowl Photo Exhibition: The Journey 25 February – 25 March

EXHIBITION LAUNCH: Please join us on Saturday 25 February at 12noon.
All welcome.

We are thrilled to present The Steinbeck Festival, Dust Bowl Photography Competition. The competition was launched in 2022 and a fine range of submissions were received. All entries showed levels of imagination and artistic inspiration that impressed the judges.

The twenty entries selected for exhibition all successfully encapsulated something of the essence of the theme, The Journey. Like Steinbeck's novels, the photographs explore the interplay between geography and humanity and demand the viewer pause to contemplate a meaningful image worthy of closer inspection.

TWILIGHT SESSIONS

SPECIAL CONSENSUS BLUEGRASS BAND

Friday 27 January, 8pm
 Tickets £17 full, £15 concession
 *This is a tiered seating event with a limited bar.

The Special Consensus Bluegrass Band from Chicago is grounded in a deep appreciation and understanding of Bluegrass music whilst utilising the innovations of today.

Evolving over four decades, they have released twenty albums, received six International Bluegrass Music Awards (IBMA) awards and had two Grammy nominations.

Alongside band founder Greg Cahill's unique banjo playing, Greg Blake (guitar), Dan Eubanks (double bass) and Michael Prewitt (mandolin) effortlessly support each other.

Whether it's a jazzy instrumental or a Bluegrass classic delivered with four part vocal harmony, these talented musicians manage to follow their creative desires without straying too far from their roots.

Their latest release received five 2020 IBMA nominations and the title song "Chicago Barn Dance" received the 2020 IBMA Song of the Year Award.

 CONVERSATION WITH
 MARTIN O'NEILL, OBE
 Friday 10 February, 8pm
 Tickets £9.50

TALK

Mark is the well-known presenter of the long-running and highly successful, The View, and Sunday Politics programmes, as well as being the presenter of the more recent Red Lines Podcast. His interview last year with the internationally renowned artist Colin Davidson was a fascinating evening of insight and revelation and a Festival highlight. His guest in conversation this year, Martin O'Neill OBE, guarantees another fascinating evening.

Martin O'Neill, OBE is a former Northern Irish professional football manager and former player who played as a midfielder. Starting his career in Northern Ireland, O'Neill moved to England, playing for various clubs during his time there. As a player, O'Neill won 64 caps for Northern Ireland and captained his country at the 1982 World Cup. O'Neil then moved into management and became Republic of Ireland manager in 2013 and led them to qualification for the 2016 UEFA European Championship for the third time in the nation's history.

"An imaginative programming ethos that nonetheless offers plenty of familiar favourites."

FILM

Filmhub NI Collective presents

Lyra

Thursday 2 March, 7pm

Tickets £5

Directed by BAFTA-winning filmmaker Alison Millar, Lyra is a beautiful and heartfelt film about the life and death of the internationally renowned Northern Irish investigative journalist Lyra McKee.

Millar's film has earned global recognition and won the Audience Award at the Cork Film Festival and the Tim Hetherington Award at Sheffield Doc Fest.

92 mins / UK / 15 / 2022 / Documentary / Language: English / Director: Alison Millar

Through a rich archive of audio recordings, field notes and interviews with those who knew her, Lyra tells the story of a life fearlessly committed to truth and justice for forgotten crimes.

Supported by Collective, an initiative from Film Hub NI (BFI Film Audience Network) which connects audiences to great films.

The result is a complex picture of Northern Ireland's political history, bringing into sharp focus the ways in which the 1998 Good Friday agreement - with its promised end to violence for future generations - has struggled to be fully realised.

Art Forms in Nature Exhibition Creative Workshops

BOTANICAL WOOL PAINTING

Saturday 4 February, 10am-1pm

Cost £25 full, £23 concession

For ages 18+

Inspired by our photographic exhibition of Karl Blossfeldt's Art Forms in Nature we will explore 'painting' plant forms onto fabric with wool using felting needles. Create your own image or choose from a selection of stencils. All tools and materials will be provided including embroidery floss and beads to add embellishment and detail to your finished piece. Suitable for beginners aged 18+ or younger participants if accompanied by an adult.

QUILL-LUMINATION

Saturday 11 February, 11am-2pm

Cost £25 full, £23 concession

For ages 14+

To compliment the Karl Blossfeldt Exhibition, Art Forms in Nature, Emma Thorpe will lead a nature themed quilling workshop inspired by Blossfeldt's nature images. Quilling dates back to the 15th and 16th centuries and is the coiling and pinching of paper strips into different shapes, which can then be used to decorate a variety of items. During this 3 hour workshop you will learn how to make simple shapes and curls with paper strips, creating a decorated initial set in a deep picture frame.

Perfect to brighten up a room at home or give as a gift to someone special.

"... an excellent workshop with very clear guidance and lots of positive compliments."

Primary Schools Competition Deadline 16 January

The Nobel Prize winning author, John Steinbeck, visited Ballykelly village in August 1952. He came in search of the townland of Mulkeeragh where his Grandfather, Samuel Hamilton, had lived and worked as a blacksmith, over a hundred years earlier. John Steinbeck admired his Grandfather a great deal and he would write about him frequently, particularly in East of Eden, published in 1952.

As a young boy, Steinbeck had been told many wonderful stories and tales about Ireland by his mother. The connection with this part of the world, especially with Mulkeeragh, Ballykelly, Lough Foyle, and the Roe Valley, was very important to him as a writer.

Our annual Steinbeck Festival celebrates the writer's connection with this local area. Children in p6/7 are asked to design a book cover for one of the Steinbeck book titles below;

- Of Mice and Men
- Travels with Charley
- Cup of Gold

Entries, including your name, class and school, should be emailed as a photo of your book cover design to: esther.alleyne@causewaycoastandglens.gov.uk or simply drop your entry into us.

The deadline for entries is 5pm on Monday 16th January 2023.

The winning book cover designs will be part of a special exhibition special exhibition - see page 6 for further details. All book cover designs will be exhibited in our Community Gallery for everyone to visit.

All participating pupils will be invited back to our centre for a special talk and will be presented with a Steinbeck Certificate - date to be confirmed.

If you require further information contact; Dougie Bartlett at steinbeckfestival@gmail.com or esther.alleyne@causewaycoastandglens.gov.uk
